

Lord You're Holy Ballin'

Kanye West Sunday Service

We put on the whole armor of the King

So that we can stand and fight against the enemy

Though weapons they may form but won't succeed

We already declare the victory

Let the redeemed of the Lord tell their stories

By His grace we are walking testimonies

For thine is the Kingdom and the glory

And we'll praise You Lord forever cause You're holy

And Your love is forever, And Your love is forever

yeah-eah...
